Meet the Job Requirements

Applicant Checklist

4. Do you meet all of the job requirements?

Make sure you meet the job requirements. A list of Job Requirements is found on each posting. Each job requirement must be met to qualify for the job. If you do not possess ALL of the job requirements, please do not submit an application. Your application will be rated "Not Qualified" and will not be considered further.

Rate Yourself Accurately

Applicant Checklist

5. Did you use the rating scale to select the answer that most accurately describes your proficiency for each job requirement?

Remember: Do not overstate your experience

The first tab on your application is the Supplemental Questionnaire (SQ) . There is a rating scale shown on this tab. Your choices are:

- Knowledge/No Work Experience,
- Applied Work Experience,
- Thorough Work Experience, and
- Expert Work Experience.

Make sure you select the answer that most accurately describes your proficiency for each job requirement. Read the rating scale carefully as it tells you important information about each level and how many years of experience are typically needed.

Experience or Knowledge?

Applicant Checklist

6. Do you have the required Education, training and/or experience to meet the job requirement?

Remember:

Education is not a substitute for experience

Education and training qualifies for knowledge job requirements.

5. When you fill out the Supplemental Questionnaire you will need to determine if you have the Knowledge or Experience that is required for the job. If the job requirements state "Experience", you must possess experience in that area. If you do not possess experience in the area, your application will be rated "Not Qualified." PLEASE NOTE: Part time experience is pro-rated. For example, if you worked 20 hours a week for two years, you would be credited with one year of full time experience.

Understand the Question

Applicant Checklist

7. Did you read the question carefully to understand what they are asking?

Remember: Do not put the same answer in response to each job requirement. Do not write “See Resume” unless it is accompanied by a detailed response to the job requirements on the Supplemental Questionnaire.

1. Read the question carefully.
2. Prepare an answer that addresses each item in the job requirements.
3. Each Job Requirement response needs to state your knowledge and experience and where you gained that knowledge and experience.
4. When a job requirement states “which includes” you need to describe your experience in each area listed to qualify.

Details, Details

Applicant Checklist

8. Did you provide a detailed description of your education, training and experience to support the response you selected for each question?

The Supplemental Questionnaire is a critical part of the application. The more detail you provide about your knowledge and work experience the better. This is your opportunity to tell the hiring agency exactly how you meet the job requirements. Give dates of employment and thorough information about your job duties(past and present). If you refer to specific employment experiences, education taken, or volunteer experience in the narrative boxes, make sure this is documented on your application and/or resume also.

Employment History

Applicant Checklist

9. Did you provide a complete listing of your employment history on your application?

The “Work Tab” in DEL is a place for you to list your employment history which will support what you wrote in the narrative boxes of the Supplemental Questionnaire. Remember if you refer to specific employment experiences or volunteer work in the narratives, make sure this is documented on the work tab of your application. List your complete employment history otherwise you will not be credited for the response in the narrative box.

Transferring Information From One Application to Another

Applicant Checklist

10. Can I copy information from a previous application into a new one?

The DEL system allows you to copy information from a previous application into a new one when you start the new application. It copies the information stored on the EEO Tab, Profile Tab, School Tab, and Work Tab. It does not copy your Supplemental Questionnaire answers. If you saved your Supplemental Questionnaire answers in a word document, you can copy these into the new application.

If you are copying information from a prior application, make sure you review and make edits where necessary to ensure that the information tells the hiring agency what you want them to know.
